FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

MAKING A BIG IMPACT WITH SMALL GROUPS

TUESDAY, MAY 15, 2018
10:00am—12:00pm
Nighthorse Campbell, Room 103

Register today: https://som.ucdenver.edu/Events

BRIEF OVERVIEW
Interactive workshop exploring and employing techniques for small group facilitation, linked to both theory and participant experiences

WHO WILL BENEFIT
Students, residents, fellows, faculty who are new to small group facilitation or are experienced but would like to hone their skills

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN
• Identify advantages/challenges of Small Group Learning (SGL)
• Cite educational theory that supports SGL
• Recognize facilitator & learner behaviors that promote effective SGL
• Develop/advance your own facilitation skills in preparation for upcoming SGL sessions

FACILITATOR: Miriam Post, MD

Questions: Tracy.Johnson@ucdenver.edu or 303-724-7741