MENTORING AND ADVISING

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 2018
2:00pm—4:00pm
Nighthorse Campbell, Room 103

Please register today: https://som.ucdenver.edu/Events

BRIEF OVERVIEW
This workshop will focus on improving skills as a mentor and advisor but also on creating a personal plan for mentorship in your own career development.

WHO WILL BENEFIT
Junior faculty and fellows who would like to improve skills as a mentor and advisor.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN
- Differentiate a mentor from an advisor, role-model, coach, preceptor and sponsor
- Briefly summarize the key benefits of mentoring
- Describe what a mentor and a mentee can do to support a strong mentoring relationship
- Discuss common mentoring pitfalls and ways to overcome them

FACILITATOR: Nichole Zehnder, MD

Questions: Tracy.Johnson@ucdenver.edu or 303-724-7741